New York, July 16 .- Fighting Bob, who won the fifth race for two-year-olds at Empire City, is appropriately named, for no gamer exhibition by a race horse has been seen in the East this year. Though a maiden, Fighting Bob was backed from 8 to 6 by the Western clique to beat Folmost sensational circumstances. When the barrier was released, Follie Levy rushed to the front, while Fighting Bob was practically left. At the far turn, Levy led by four lengths, and Powers had her under a pull, with May Florgaining rapidly. When Levy turned into the stretch the spectators offered to bet 20 to 1 that she would win, and as she seemed to be going easily Powers began to ease her up at the furlong pole. But suddenly the crowd saw Fighting Bob, The Summaries.
